Community Use of Meeting Rooms

MEET 001

Policy: Washington County Free Library’s service includes providing meeting rooms for group use by both profit and nonprofit organizations. The library welcomes the use of its meeting rooms for activities of civic, cultural, intellectual, charitable or educational nature by groups who agree to observe the rules and whose activities will not adversely affect library operations. The rooms may not be used for purely social purposes which include but are not limited to parties or entertainment, or for fund raising. Rooms may not be used as the sole or primary location to conduct regular business operations.

Priority for the use of the rooms will be given in the following order:

- Washington County Free Library
- Friends of the Washington County Free Library
- Government Departments and officials (local, state, federal)
- Non-profit and community interest
- For-profit businesses and organizations

Effective November 1, 2013 certain library meeting rooms will be available to groups for a fee. The library reserves the right to make fee determinations. No meeting room fee will be charged for the use of the meeting rooms by the following groups: 1) library sponsored programs and meeting held by library-related organizations; 2) official meetings of departments of Washington County, Washington County municipalities, the State of Maryland and the U.S. Government and elected officials in any of these levels of government; 3) tutors offering free one-on-one or family sessions; 4) programs co-sponsored with education and community groups. Fees will be charged according to the table below for the meeting rooms in the Alice Virginia and David W. Fletcher Library:

		Room Number and Capacity
		Room 308	Room 309	Rms 308/309	Room 334

Meeting Room Regulations

1. It is understood that the public will be welcome to all meetings for which no meeting room fee is charged. If a meeting room fee has been paid, the group reserving the meeting room determines whether the gathering will be open to the public.
2. Meeting room attendance may not exceed the posted room capacity determined by building and fire regulations.
3. Children's and youth groups may use the facilities, provided that they are adequately supervised by adult sponsors (no less than 1-20 ratio).
4. Non-profits groups must provide a copy of their 501c3 at time of registration.
5. No group may use the facilities more than two times per month.
6. If a meeting room fee has been paid, the group reserving the meeting room may charge an admission fee and sell products or services within the confines of the meeting room only. No signs may be posted or brochures distributed elsewhere on library property.
7. Light refreshments may be served if requested in the application and if the kitchenette (where available) is left in an orderly condition. No alcoholic beverages may be served.
8. Tobacco use is not permitted in any area of the library.
9. No group or organization shall use the library as a mailing address.
10. Any publicity, including brochures, flyers, radio and TV announcements, newspaper, Facebook announcements, ads, etc., must carry the name and telephone number of the individual or organization sponsoring the meeting. The library phone number may not appear on the publicity.
11. The library may not be identified or implied as a sponsor. All printed material advertising the meeting, including newspaper advertisement, must include the following disclaimer: "Use of the library meeting space does not constitute endorsement of this organization, this program or its content by the Washington County Free Library".

12. If a request is made by a member of the public, the library reserves the right to share the contact information of any individual/organization that books a meeting room.
 13. The library will not provide personnel to assist the handling of exhibits and other paraphernalia needed by groups using a meeting room.
 14. The person/group using the library is expected to provide all equipment necessary for their meeting/program.
 15. When making a booking, please include time for setup and return of the room to its standard arrangement. Any setting up of chairs or rearrangement of furniture and other equipment must be done by the users and then replaced to a standard arrangement when finished. Lights in the restrooms and meeting rooms must be turned off at the end of the meeting.
 16. The library is not responsible for lost or stolen articles.
 17. The library is not responsible for any injury to persons or damage to property resulting from the use of library facilities.
 18. In the event of an emergency, the Library Director or designated staff reserves the right to cancel meeting room reservations. In the event of severe weather conditions, a group representative will be responsible for listening to local radio stations or checking the library's website for closing announcements.
 19. No pieces of equipment or other items belonging to a group may be left in the library between meetings, nor may library telephones be used for other than library business.
 20. Members of groups using a meeting room during library hours of operation must not disturb library customers. Children associated with groups using a meeting room should be supervised while in the library.
 21. Rooms can be booked six (6) months in advance.
 22. All prospective users must fill out an application. Requests for rooms can be done through the online Meeting Room Calendar (<http://washcolibrary.evanced.info/roomrequest.asp>) by selecting first the Room then the time of your request and submitting online or using a printed application available online (http://www.washcolibrary.org/?q=meeting_rooms), at every branch and by calling 301-739-3250 ext. 100
 23. The person applying for the reservation of a meeting room should retain a copy of the regulations for referral.
 24. Failure to adhere to meeting room policies or regulations may result in revocation of meeting room privileges.
 25. The facilities are available for use Monday – Saturday when the libraries are open. Meeting room facilities are not available on Sundays or Holidays recognized by the Library.
 26. Entities using the meeting rooms must provide a Certificate of Insurance
